

WWALTM (What We Are Learning This Month) October 2023

Team 6

Ms. Adams	Math : Students will be learning about integers. Personal Wellness : Students will be learning about building classroom community, caring for themselves and their community.
Ms. Kynock	Science : Students will be learning how to appropriately express their ideas using science terminology. Social Studies : Students will be learning about concept of culture and how it plays a role in their lives. Personal Wellness : Students will be learning about building positive relationships in the classroom and community.
Miss Chappelle	Language Arts : We have been busy discovering our reading and writing identities in grade 6! This month, students will be creating a descriptive writing piece in the spirit of all things spooky! Personal Wellness : Students will be learning about building positive relationships in the classroom and their community.
Ms. Foster	Personal Wellness : Students will be learning about building positive relationships in the classroom and their community.
Mlle Taviss	FILA : Students will be developing the basics of the French language using speaking and listening games and various reading and writing activities Sc.Hum. : Students will be learning about culture, Canadian culture and discussing Orange Shirt day and its accompanying themes. PIF : Students will be discussing their likes and dislikes as well as exploring Autumnal themes and vocabulary.
Mme Downey	Math : Students will be learning about multiples, basic order of operations, and integers. Science : Students will be learning about the scientific method and experimental variables.
M. Sandford	PIF : Students will continue to focus on their learning habits as French learners. Working with descriptions using colours and numbers on top of how they prepare themselves to get ready for their days (morning routines).
Mrs. Lund	Language Arts : Students will be learning how to write Personal Narratives and Watermelon/Seed Topics
Mr. Brewer	Physical Education : We will continue to play low organized and cooperative games and go to the turf during outdoor Phys Ed.
Mrs. Hanscomb	Fine Arts : We will be completing an artist study on Keith Haring. We will continue to explore the elements of line and colour. We will begin to learn about the life and times of Vincent Van Gogh while analyzing and getting inspiration from his works.
Mr. Pomeroy	Technology : We will wrap up our Gimp image editing projects and begin working on MSOffice projects for desktop and cloud computing.
Mr. Primrose	Wolastoqey : We will be learning about general phrases, senses, commands, and animals in the Wolastoqey language.

Team 7

Mrs. Carlisle	LA : We have begun a Topic Unit on Homelessness, that complements our read aloud “No Fixed Address. Through this unit we will be exploring various reading and writing strategies. PIF : We are continuing with a review of basic phrases and vocabulary. We are beginning our unit on Les Phénomènes Étranges au Canada; studying, reading, and writing about various strange phenomena in Canada. Personal Wellness : We are working on a unit about communication.
Ms. Turley	Math : We are reviewing basic whole number functions like multiplication and division before moving on and working on them with decimals. Personal Wellness : Students will be learning about relationships and values.
Mr. MacNeil	Science : Students will be learning about the experimental design process, and they will be building a balloon car. PDCP : Students will be learning about the fundamentals of entrepreneurship through the Everfi computer program.
Mlle Jones	Sc.Hum. : Students will continue to explore the definitions of empowerment, power and authority. We will continue our exploration into Residential schools and reconciliation.
Ms. Foster	LA : Students will begin our Topic Unit on Homelessness, that complements our read aloud “No Fixed Address”. Through this unit we will be exploring various reading and writing strategies. Social Studies : Students will continue to explore the concepts of empowerment, power, and authority.
Mme. Downey	Math : Students will be learning about evaluating simple algebraic expressions, and addition and subtraction of integers. Science : Students will be learning about the scientific method and experimental variables. Personal Wellness : Students will be learning about healthy lifestyles.
Mrs Lund	Social Studies – Students will be learning about Residential Schools/Truth and Reconciliation and Empowerment Language Arts – Students will continue their unit on Homelessness, reading No Fixed Address , and begin Personal Narratives
M. Sandford	PIF : Students will continue to focus on their learning habits as French learners. Working with descriptions using colours and numbers on top of how they prepare themselves to get ready for their days (morning routines).
Mr. Tower	Physical Education : We will continue to play low organized and cooperative games and go to the turf during outdoor Phys Ed.
Mlle Taviss	FILA : Students will continue to explore phonetics and phonemes before moving on to our first unit which will be focused on descriptive writing and language.
Mr. Pomeroy	Technology : Students will continue to work on MSOffice projects and a digital literacy program online. We will construct and assemble rockets. When the rockets are completed, students will test launch them in the field across from the school.
Mr. Primrose	Wolastoqey : We will be learning about feelings, senses, commands, animals, and how to incorporate them into sentences.

Team 8

Mr. Drillen	Math : We will continue with our unit on multiplying and dividing positive and negative integers. We will solve equations numerically and symbolically. Personal Wellness : We will continue with our unit on Safety and Wellness.
Mrs. Muise	LA : We will continue to work on building a community of readers and writers through various communication, reading and written representations. Personal Wellness : We will continue to work on our Safety and Wellness unit.
Mlle Jones	PIF : Students will continue to explore our unit “Une mode de vie d’autrefois”, learning vocabulary, reading skills and writing skills regarding the past. Science : Students will continue to learn the scientific/experimental design process and will be conducting experiments. Sc.Hum. : Students will start exploring the provinces that make up Atlantic Canada. Students will continue their learning about Residential Schools and reconciliation.
Mr. MacNeil	Science : Students will be learning about the experimental design process, and they will be building a catapult. PDCP : Students will be learning about mental wellness through the Everfi computer program.
Mme. Downey	Math : Students will be learning about Pythagorean theorem, and multiplication and division of integers.
Ms. Watson	Social Studies : Students will finish exploring the provinces that make up Atlantic Canada and continue to learn about Truth and Reconciliation. Science : Students will explore scientific inquiry and use those skills to solve problems. They will also learn how to communicate ideas and results when conducting experiments. Personal Wellness : We will continue to learn about what makes us healthy and well both at home and school.
Mlle Taviss	FILA : Students will continue to explore phonetics and phonemes before moving on to our first unit which will focus on Poetry and building a strong vocabulary.
Mrs. Thomson	LA : We will continue to develop our community of learners through specific reading and writing activities. Our class read aloud “Boot Camp” will be used as a mentor text to support discussions, predictions, and inferences.
Mr. Brewer/ Mr. Tower	Physical Education : We will continue to play low organized and cooperative games and go to the turf during outdoor Phys Ed.
Mrs. Lund	Social Studies : Students will be learning about Truth and Reconciliation/Residential Schools and Atlantic Canadian geography. LA : Students will complete “Where I’m From” poems and writing Personal Narratives PW : Students will learn about healthy/unhealthy habits, self-care, and vaping
Mrs. Hanscomb	Fine Arts : We will be completing an artist study on Keith Haring. We will continue to explore the elements of line and colour. We will begin to learn about space, form and texture while learning about the art of Jeff Koons.
Mr. Pomeroy	Technology : Students will wrap up their iMovie commercial selling a product, a service, or an idea and begin a PowerPoint project. We will also begin CO2 car design and production in the woodshop.
Mr. Primrose	Wolastoqey : We will be learning about feelings, senses, commands, animals, animate and inanimate word usage, and how they form sentences.
Mrs. Carlisle	PIF : Students will continue to explore our unit “Une mode de vie d’autrefois”, learning vocabulary, reading and writing skills regarding the past.